The plan of having Rear Admiral Sampson's profile on the medals that are to be prepared by the Navy Department, in accordance with an act of Congress, for presentation to the men who participated in the battle of Santiago, has, it is thought, been headed off. The storm raised by the announcement of the plan frightened its authors.

The deadlock of the powers, in Peking, on the question of the amount of indemnity that shall be demanded of China, is causing the administration to realize that it has been placing too much confidence in Li Hung Chang, that crookedest of all Chinese. Commissioner Rockhill has asked for new instructions and the administration is in a quandary as to what to say to him.

The Louisville Dispatch, is no more. Last week it ceased publication and an order will be made in the near future to sell all the machinery. It was brought into existence at a time and under circumstances that warranted the opinion that it would flourish and become a powerful journal, a true advocate of Democratic principles; but from the very start its management mistook its real purpose and mission and turned its energies loose on the Courier-Journal instead of the common enemy. Later on it left its party and used all its powers to bring about disunion and Republican victory. It died in shame, poverty and infamy—the logical result of treachery. We have no tears to shed.

GREENSBURG.

J. S. Patton, who died of pneumonia, was buried Thursday on Loney Strader place.

We publish the names of our paid subscribers each week, for the reason it is a receipt to ones who pay, and furthermore, it furnishes our advertisers with the class of people who are supporting the paper. It may look like occupying space for a little purpose, but many people like it, and we know it has been a great advantage to us. In today's paper about fifty names appear.

It is now time for the stockmen to advertise their stock. In our judgment the newspaper that reaches the people is the very best medium. Bills do but little towards advertising, as they are rarely ever seen but a few miles from home; their purpose in the main is to set forth terms. The News, read by 5,000 people every week, is ready to tell the story. If you have good stock, worthy and desirable advertise in this paper.

The pool table, which was recently purchased by the Billiard Club of this place, reached Columbia last Friday afternoon and is now in operation. For Embezzlement.

Last Wednesday a man and woman reached the Marum Hotel, this city, and registered as J. W. Jones and wife. They engaged a room and gave the proprietor to understand that they would be here several days. The next morning the general's talk indicated that he was a post-office inspector. In fact he informed Mr. Marum that he wanted to go to Burdick, in Taylor County, stating that there were irregularities in the mails between Columbia and Campbellsville. He was to have taken the noon hack Friday for Burdick, but a storm came up and he deferred the trip. About 5 o'clock that afternoon Mr. Marum was called to the telephone and asked if there was such a man, giving Jones' description, stopping at his hotel. He answered in the affirmative, and was told by Mr. Heizer, the town Marshal of Campbellsville, to keep him, as he would be over at once for him.
The town Marshal reached here about twelve o'clock that night and the arrest was made.
Further developments proved that the man's real name was W. I. Fugate, that his home is in Oceola, Clark County, Iowa, and that he had left that country for selling mortgage property. He was arrested in Campbellsville ten days ago upon the same charge but was released upon a writ of habeas corpus.
Mr. Fugate claims that he will be released upon reaching Iowa, but his wife is not so sanguine. Furthermore, Mr. Fugate's actions at the hotel here indicated that he was not feeling free and easy. Upon his arrival he asked Mr. Marum if a great many traveling men did not stop with him, and upon receiving an affirmative answer, he stated that himself and wife desired to be quiet, and asked to not be called to their meals until the evening had retired from the table.
A man named White, claiming to be from Russell County, was at Nell, Adair County, last Sunday, one week from yesterday. He informed Mr. S. R. Weathersby and said that he had money close to his store. But little attention was paid to his story, but on Thursday following Mr. Walker was out in the field carrying a planched, having several hands with him. They found near where they were at work a considerable sum of money, scattered close upon the ground. It is now locked in Mr. Walker's safe, and the owner can have it by describing the man and paying for this notice. Mr. White was arrested and a perpetrator in the neighborhood.

When you take into consideration the competition the merchants of Columbia have, the large business they do is astonishing. There are seventy-three stores in Adair County, sixty of them outside of Columbia.
The remains of Mr. Geo. R. Young's son, who died at Anchorage last Fall, will be brought to Adair County for re-interment. A brother of the deceased and Mr. Porter Barger left for the remains yesterday.

The store of Lefe Sanders, Taylor County, was entered by thieves last Saturday night and a quantity of goods taken. Mr. Sanders was here Sunday, looking for his goods. He thinks the robbers live in the neighborhood of the store.
Miss Bettie Barbee entertained several of her young friends a few nights ago. There were music and games and the evening very much enjoyed. Miss Bettie is a popular young lady, and every effort was made to make her friends pass a pleasant and enjoyable evening.

The slaves are being shipped daily to Campbellsville. The Columbia Company will continue in the business and will have more slaves for the market as soon as the number can be cut and banded.

During a high tide in Cumberland river, two weeks ago, a great many logs were rafted from Russell County to Nashville. For several days the rafts have been reaching Columbia, enroute home. They come by rail to Glasgow and walk from there home.
Prof. Ballard informed us that he had enrolled 100 students and that the average daily attendance is over 80. The old school is going a lively gallop but this is due to its management. Prof. Ballard and wife are doing a good work.
Business has not been particularly brisk in Columbia for several weeks for the reason that farmers are making preparations for putting in their spring crops. Our merchants are making no complaint, knowing that the farmer is the base and sine of the land.

Mr. Mont White, of this place, who was a soldier in the Philippines, has been lying dangerously ill in a hospital at San Francisco, Cal. for several weeks. He was taken sick on the islands and transported to the hospital in San Francisco for better treatment. His parents and sister have been anxiously hoping that he would be well enough to return home, but a kind came over their pleasant anticipations last Thursday. A dispatch from the surgeon stated that Mont was "leaving ground." The word "leaving" was evidently mistaken in transmitting the message, and was certainly written "dying." In the afternoon Mr. J. V. White, who is the father of the young soldier, left for San Francisco. Two hours later a dispatch came stating that there was but little hope for Mont's recovery. It is hoped that he may take a turn for the better, and will live to reach his home. In the meantime the anxious and distressed family have the sympathy of this community.

It is reported here that young Webb, of Russell county, who was afflicted with small-pox, has about recovered, and that there are no other cases in the county. A report gained circulation that Webb lived at Kibbie, which was a mistake. His home is six miles from that place, and there has been no small-pox at Kibbie at any time. The people at that place are generally healthy and the business men are not complaining.
A few days ago we were asked how many Mexican soldiers were yet in the Adair county. We could not name but three—W. C. Turk, John Eshank and William Cabbell. There may be others, but we hardly think that there are. The old veterans of 1846 are fast passing away, and in a few more years the question will be how many are yet living in the State. They will be numbered like the revolutionary soldiers, one in Adair, one in Fayette, another one in McCreary, and when you are through counting, there will be only six or eight.
